My dear Professor,

I know that it is taking advantage of your kindness to write to you in English, but all the German that I know isn't enough to express our gratitude for the lovely box of candy we just received from you. Indeed it was very sweet in both senses of the word, and we will try to show our appreciation of your thoughtfulness when you visit us in 1908.

We leave in a few hours for Vienna, otherwise would come out to see you. With best regards from my mother and myself to you and yours, I am

Very sincerely yours,
Elsie Hobart.
